Ahu Collection

Every design is woven from choice, every color from imagination. In the AHU Collection, our customers select from a rich palette of yarns and choose their preferred pattern, which we bring to life through intricate weaving—not printing. By interlacing vibrant threads and leaving deliberate spaces within the weave, each rug gains depth, movement, and refined character. The result is a truly tactile expression of design—personal, textural, and timeless.

Qum Collection

Every texture tells a story of simplicity, every thread carries the calm of nature. In the Qum Collection, we translate the organic beauty of wind-swept sand dunes into an authentic, tactile experience. Crafted with precision flat-weaving—never printed—each piece showcases a sophisticated herringbone relief that adds architectural depth and dynamic movement to your floors. The deliberate geometry of the sisal-look weave brings together resilient durability with an understated, earth-toned elegance. The result is a grounded expression of modern living—refined, highly textured, and effortlessly timeless.

Company Philosophy

At the heart of our company lies passion — a genuine love for what we create. Every thread we weave, every design we bring to life carries a touch of that devotion.

We don't just make rugs; we craft stories of warmth, texture, and artistry. Doing our work with love means caring for every detail, honoring tradition, and always reaching for perfection.

Our strength comes from this passion — it's what turns craftsmanship into art, and every piece into something truly meaningful.
